Brian Kabateck Makes Daily Journal's Top 100 List

The Daily Journal, California's premier legal industry publication, recognized Brian Kabateck as one of the top 100 attorneys in California.

The recognition was published in the Daily Journal's September 23rd issue. Kabateck was noted for helping to settle hundreds of cases for plaintiffs against Merck & Co. Inc. over the discontinued painkiller Voixx for its alleged link to heart-related problems. He is lead counsel with the NAACP in suing more than a dozen financial institutions for alleged discriminatory lending practices. He is continuing to litigate on behalf of family members of those killed in the Armenian genocide and he is also a major player for plaintiff's counsel in the Anthony Pellicano-related civil litigation.
