

DOMAINNAMENEWS

April 29, 2009

NETWORK SOLUTIONS SETTLES IN “FRONT-RUNNING” CLASS ACTION

DomainNameNews reports that Network Solutions is a defendant in a recently approved $1 million class action settlement stemming from “front-running” practices it allegedly employed to sell domain names. The original suit was filed in U.S. District Court in the Central District of California by Kabateck Brown Kellner LLP. Refunds are due for numerous class members who purchased domain names from the company.