LA FITNESS SUED OVER EARLY TERMINATION FEES

Findlaw reports that plaintiffs have sued the Irvine-based gym chain LA Fitness for forcing members to sign contracts that enforce early-termination fees that do not reflect the gym's costs and that deter members from canceling. The plaintiffs are represented by Joshua Haffner of Kabateck Brown Kellner LLP in Los Angeles. The suit was filed in U.S. District Court in the Central District of California and alleges violations of the California Business & Professions Code and various consumer protection laws.
