

Los Angeles Times - Attorney, Pellicano Guilty of Snooping (August 30, 2008)

The Los Angeles Times reported that a federal jury convicted prominent Century City attorney Terry Christensen after a six-week trial for illegal wiretaps arranged by convicted private investigator Anthony Pellicano. Brian Kabateck of Kabateck Brown Kellner LLP represents some of the alleged wiretap victims, according to the Times. He said his clients could be entitled to $5,000 to $10,000 in damages for each incident in which their private conversations were tapped.
